ADMISSION OF 1,776 AT UNIVERSITY REMINDS
OFFICE PERSONNEL OF NATION'S INDEPENDENCE

MISSOULA--

Personnel in the Admissions and Records Office at the University of Montana in Missoula recently received an accidental reminder of the nation's independence when they discovered that effective July 1, a total of 1,776 new freshmen and transfer students had been admitted to UM for the 1976 fall quarter, which begins Sept. 27.

Jack L. Hoover, associate director of admissions and records at UM, said the figure of 1,776 new students admitted to UM for fall quarter was reached during a periodic count of incoming students.
